HOW DOES YOUR BANK HANDLE GENERATION Y EMPLOYEES?

The Headache: More and more Generation Y employees are working in the nation's banks.

Our Question: How does your bank work with this growing crop of talent?

Come see what other bankers think, and add your own views

When Gen Y punches in: What is your bank doing to work best with Generation Y employees?

Much has been written about the need to adapt to the Generation Y customer, whose preferences, habits, and attitud may differ significantly from their parents', and earlier generations of banking customers.

But less has been written about Generation Y as a co-worker or employee.

And we haven't heard much from Gen Y about how they feel about working in today's banks.

Bankers have been sharing their thoughts in the print edition of "Pass the Aspirin." Read what they have had to say, a add your own thoughts, solutions, or frustrations below.
