Washington is full of puzzles, and sometimes, when you find the answer, you've also found a fresh puzzle. In recognition of that, we've brought you a double puzzle—a word search puzzle and an anagram unscramble.

1. Your first challenge is to find ten names, phrases, or sentences in the puzzle above, either horizontally or vertically (no backwards this week). They are all anagrams of the real names, phrases, or sentences, all drawn from current Washington affairs. You may find the letter counts on the next page helpful.

D.C. Search-a-Gram (Part 2)

2. Now that you've found the ten names, phrases, or sentences in the word search puzzle, here's the hard part. Below you'll find space to write in what you found, in red on the left. Now unscramble each to reveal a person, group, or issue that comes up in Washington news. The list below appears in the order that the words appear in the puzzle, from top to bottom.

Fax both pages of your completed puzzle, with name, bank, title, and e-mail, by 5 PM, Dec. 2, to 212-633-1165, to participate in a drawing for a $25 Amazon gift certificate. Good luck! scocheo@sbsub.com
