

ABA BJ Puzzle of the Week: 1/26/11

Home Improvement, Lone: The Puzzle (Before)

Was there ever a home improvement job or "simple" home repair that went according to plan or cost estimate? In the photo below, you see a gathering of sheetrock, supplies, tools, and paint for repairing a drywall ceiling that succumbed to a bad second-floor leak.

ABA BJ Puzzle of the Week: 1/26/11

Home Improvement, Lone: The Puzzle (After)

Alas, things didn't go quite according to plan, and you'll see some of the results of one of our editors trying to do the job alone. There are 17 differences to be spotted between the first version of the photo, on the first sheet, and the second version, below. You can fill them in on
