How often do you say "I searched for information on the internet"? Likely never.

Instead, you use the name of a certain popular website that is now also an everyday business verb. Banking has numerous words, from the teller line to the boardroom, that do double duty as nouns and verbs. This week's puzzle contains 14 such words, including the one hinted at in the beginning of this description. (Hint: It's a "2 G connection.")

Fax your completed puzzle, with name, bank, title, and e-mail, by 5 PM, Wednesday, Dec. 14, to 212-633-1165, to participate in a drawing for a $25 gift card from Amazon. Good luck! scocheo@sbpub.com
