Puzzle by guest author Paul Jarosz

Many banks have been named for people, but how many people have been named for banks? Actually, more people and groups than you'd think. Frequent puzzle player—and two-time winner—Paul Jarosz, SVP and director of government compliance at Oxford Bank & Trust, Oak Brook, Ill., devised the word search above. It includes the names of 23 famous people or groups whose names contain variations of references to coin or currency or banking. Seven are fictional—such as Victor Quartermain, from the movie, Wallace and Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit—and 16 are real. The names come from show-biz, sports, business, and science. Also, Paul's hidden the name of his own bank in here, as an extra.

Fax your completed puzzle, with name, title, bank, and e-mail, by 5 PM, July 22, to 212-633-1165, to participate in a drawing for a $25 Amazon gift certificate. Good luck! scocheo@sbsub.com Watch ABABankingJourn on Twitter for two clues
For fun, tell us of any names like these that Paul didn't include—they could appear in a future puzzle.
