

ABA BJ Puzzle of the Week: Rhyme Time 2.0, 8/20/09 puzzle

This week's puzzle was inspired by "Tricky Ricky Kane's" popular newspaper feature, "Wordy Gurdy," one of our own favorites and distributed by United Features Syndicate Inc. But we've put a banking twist on Kane's concept. Each answer is a pair of words that rhyme, and both have the same number of syllables. They all have a connection to money or banking. The number in parentheses after the clue represents the number of syllables each word contains. Paul Jarosz of Oxford Bank, Ill., devised this week's puzzle. Here's a sample:

The clue is "Marketing-minded cash dispenser. (2)"
The answer is "Seller Teller."

Good luck! See below for drawing instructions.

1. "Resistance to regulatory requirements." (3)

Don't blame us if you didn't pay attention during compliance training! Paul Jarosz, guest puzzler, is senior vice-president for government compliance at his bank, and also loves puzzles and trivia. This week, he combined work and play.

Fax your completed puzzle, with name, bank, title, and e-mail, by 5 PM, August 26, to 212-633-1165, to participate in a drawing for a $25 Amazon gift certificate. Good luck! scocheo@sbsub.com
