

Public Savants: The Solution

The list of banker descriptions, with their names, appears on the next page.

ABABJ Weekly Puzzle 7/30/09

Public Savants (listed)

1. Former Nebraska banker, served as FDIC vice-chairman and acting chairman.

Andrew Hove

2. Founder and director of three southwestern banks, he served as Federal Reserve Board governor.

Edward Kelley

3. Former ABA president [1979] from N.C., served on FDIC board.

C.C. Hope

4. Former Texas banker chaired FDIC in post-9/11 period.

Don Powell

5. First woman to serve as banker head of ABA [2004], she now serves on Federal Reserve Board of Governors.

Elizabeth Duke

6. Former Florida community banker who served as Federal Reserve Board member in 1979-82.

Frederick Schultz

7. First-ever Comptroller of the Currency (1863-1865), he previously ran State Bank of Indiana.

Hugh McCulloch

8. Massachusetts banker served long stint on Federal Reserve Board, specialized in payment issues.

John LaWare

9. Former Florida community banker served as key Senate staffer, FDIC Vice-Chairman, and later as

Director of the Office of Thrift Supervision.

John Reich

10. Detroit bank chairman who served U.S. post-WWII by helping to reorganize German economy. Known best for efforts as special ambassador to Japan and role in devising economic stabilization plan there.

Joseph Dodge

11. Pennsylvania banker who chaired House Banking Committee for six Congresses while still keeping his bank job. Known for famous anti-branching law that bore his name.

Louis McFadden

12. Minnesota community banker served as ABA president [1986], key Senate staffer, Federal Reserve Board Governor, and head of PCAOB, the accounting regulator.

Mark Olson

13. Famous Utah banker who went on to serve as both chair and vice-chairman of Federal Reserve Board. Fed building across from HQ bears his name.

Marriner Eccles

14. Pre-Revolutionary War banker and merchant who personally financed key elements of the War. He served in various capacities, including "Agent of Marine" and "Superintendent of Finance." He was also one of the first Senators from Pennsylvania.

Robert Morris

15. Former southern banker, served on Fed board, known for her interest in enterprise risk management and corporate governance—and soccer!

Susan Bies